RUTH'S ARMY

Things aren't always black and white

In This Issue...

IN APRIL, ADVOCACY WAS IN ACTION

VOLUNTEER FOR THE NEXT REACH CLINIC

THE MAP

IN APRIL, ADVOCACY WAS IN ACTION

The first 100 days of the current administration has been a challenge [to say the least]. With the ongoing attack on reproductive rights, there have been plenty of opportunities to advocate. Check out a recap of advocacy in action throughout the month of April:

Kim & Tracy tabled at APSU's Sexual Wellness Fair (4/2/2025)

(continued on page 03)

Contact Info

i. @ruthsarmytn

f. https://www.facebook.com/ruthsarmyTN

e. ruthsarmytn@gmail.com

w. https://ruthsarmytn.org

VOLUNTEER FOR THE NEXT REACH CLINIC

Our tabling and marketing efforts have paid off as clinic days have been increasingly busy. To register to volunteer at our upcoming clinics, please visit this Google Form to register.

REPRODUCTIVE EQUITY & CONTRACEPTIVE HEALTH
REACH CLINIC

OUR NEXT CLINIC DAYS..

May 10th
June 14th
July 12th

THE MAP

The Massachusetts Medication Abortion Access Project, or The MAP), is a telemedicine platform aimed to provide medication abortion care to individuals throughout the United States. Those who live in the United States and had their last menstrual period begin less than 11 weeks ago may be eligible for The MAP services. The MAP provides:

- Medication abortion pills for immediate and future use
- Miscarriage management
- Period Pills - learn more about Period Pills here

To learn more about The MAP and their services, please visit here.

IN APRIL, ADVOCACY WAS IN ACTION (CONT.)

On April 8th, Ruth's Army and Gen Action joined over 100 others for Planned Parenthood's Advocacy Day on the hill. An effort was made to speak with representatives about upcoming legislation and provide awareness of the potential harm it will cause.

IN APRIL, ADVOCACY WAS IN ACTION (CONT.)

Planned Parenthood of Tennessee and North Mississippi is hosting fundraising events, Standing Strong, in several cities throughout the region. Britt, Destiny, and Emily attended the Nashville event hosted at The Reserve on April 10th. The next Standing Strong event will be in Knoxville on May 7th. Those interested in attending can purchase tickets here.

Britt, Desitiny, & Emily at Standing Strong